> Waverly Times:-"Last Tuesday afternoon, when it was made known in our city that Mr. King was at the grounds with his onstruction train and crew, everybody egan to don their best, and by 2 o'clock m., the entire right of way was packed with our citizens, who had assembled to welcome the fir-t engine (old 328) to Waverly. At 3, p. m., the Waverly cornet band, preceded by Capt. Redd, showed up and treated the crowd to some of their choicest music. After playing "Montrose" for Uncle Jim Drysdale, the engineer, all that could immediately boarded the train and King gave the signal to run back. George Harris and Miss Sallie Barnett were in the driver's scat, and Doc. Morrow and Miss Fannie January were on the stoker's side of the cab, while the Misses Dors and Lula Asher, Lizzie Motte, Lillie January, Birdle Capps, Jessie Tucker, Aggie Pulliam, Sallie Arnold, Lizzie Peppler. Mamie Henry and several other oung ladies whose names we failed to learn, held down the balance of the available space in the cab and on the tender, while two fist cars in front carried the band and a mixed crowd. After a journey of about five miles
